HARLEM'S MUDDY RACING.

The Harlem track was never before so bad as it was yesterday. Three-quarters in 1:27½ and a mile in 1:59 reflects its condition. Secretary Nathanson was disgusted. "Mud horses only," said he, "have been running for the past week, and they are being run out. Unless there will be an immediate improvement in the weather it will be useless to continue the races. With all the horses there are here it will be impossible to get enough starters to make the races in any way satisfactory. It is useless to try to arrange races to suit the horses that can run in that kind of going. The thought of a program is simply disheartening."

Nevertheless the horses ran to form and figures, with the result that four favorites and two well-backed second choices won. One of the second choices, Sunburst, opened at 3 and 4 to 5, and was backed to 8 to 5 straight at the post. The ring was hard hit on that race, and had a bad day.

The favorite won the first race but was out to the last resource and should have been beaten by Weird. The latter was a length and a half in advance of Hosi when they were opposite the south end of the grand stand and Bloss was riding easily, while H. Martin was driving. Martin persevered and Hosi responded gamely. Fifty yards from the finish Bloss tried to rally his mount but could not get him going and a sudden change of positions upset what appeared a foregone conclusion.

The second race was decided by a stirring finish between Boney Boy and Pirate Judge, respectively next to last and last away from the post. Boney Boy promptly went out for the lead and got it. Pirate Judge caught him about 150 yards from the stand. Burns appeared confident and playing for a chance to "draw it fine." When it did come to a finish, Martin outrode him. Both youngsters swerved to the inside from the whip. Martin proved himself an adept in the art of using that much misused tool.

Bonito was played as a certainty for the third race. Borden came near defeating her. Coming into the stretch Bonito went around on the extreme outside, while Borden cut across after straightening out. They jostled one another near the furlong post. Then Rutter held the filly against Borden and prevented Caywood from using his whip. This maneuver probably decided the race. Until Bonito got away from him Caywood was at no time able to properly drive his horse.

The ring's mathematician made Joe Clark a 3 to 5 chance for the fourth race. The wise folks played Sunburst. He had worked impressively Saturday evening after the races were over. The intelligent money bet on the race went on his chances. Sunburst cut no figure in the race until the field had run three-quarters of a mile. Then he began to close. Hill took Joe Clark around on the extreme outside of the track on the upper turn. Bloss came through on the inside, gained many lengths, and cut across, getting on even terms with Clark. They ran together to the grand stand and then Sunburst drew away and won.

The fifth race fell to Mizzoura, who got off last. The Dragoon ran a fair race. Cousin Lettie, away on the inside, quickly tired in the soft going, and Mazie O. went to weariness in the stretch.

Ramiro II. was at a prohibitive price for the last race. Still he was backed. Sangamon was played for the place from 8 to 5 down to evens. The choices ran according to backing. Sangamon brought Ramiro to a drive in the last furlong, but the struggle was brief and the result decisive.

Clawson has been engaged to ride Imp in the Suburban next Saturday. He will leave Chicago Thursday for New York.

H. O. Bernard, the original "plunger" on the eastern tracks, was at Harlem yesterday. He has not been a heavy bettor in several years. His first prominence on the turf was as a member of the "McDaniel's Confederacy."

Between the first and second races Boanerges was worked three-quarters of a mile in 1:29½.

That speedy colt, Dave Waldo, is very sick. His first trouble was mouth disease. That was followed by a cough, and now his lungs are said to be affected. It is feared his case will develop into pneumonia.

Rush will arrive from Latonia this morning. Her owner, T. C. McDowell and Joe Hill came in Sunday morning. Speaking of the race for the Clipsetta Stakes, Mr. McDowell said: "Rush won by about the length of my umbrella, and I don't believe she could have won by twice that much. Reports say it was a hard race. I don't call a race hard where a horse gets off third goes to the front and stays there to the end. Espionage went to Detroit and won her stake and Imp won at Brooklyn today. There must be some class to the horses racing here."

A number of local commission houses did business on the Brooklyn races yesterday and lost a lot of money over the Imp race, Budd White was punished most heavily. Chicago bettors love the mare and bet on her. She will be staunchly supported for the Suburban Handicap in which she has a royal chance.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

When Jeddah won the Derby he also won the distinction of winning at the greatest odds on record against a Derby winner. On this point the London Sporting Life says: "On no previous year has the Derby winner started at 100 to 1. The noted outsiders of the century have been Cardinal Beaufort in 1805, when starting at 20 to 1, and the same odds were quoted against Pan and Pope in their respective years of 1808 and 1806. Prince Leopold started also at 20 to 1 in 1816, and the extreme outsider, Azor, was the winner in 1817 at 50 to 1. Lapdog was the next to upset calculations, as he started at 30 to 1 in 1826, and Frederick won in 1829 at 35 to 1. Spaniel surpassed him in 1831 as his quotation was 50 to 1, and Dangerous was the winner in 1833 when at 25 to 1. Phosphorus was the hero of 1837 at 40 to 1. Bloomsbury was at 30 to 1 in 1839, and Little Wonder was at 20 to 1 in 1840. In 1845 Merry Monarch had no quotation on the day, but 40 to 1 was his price during the previous week. Daniel O'Rourke brought off a 25 to 1 chance in 1852. Ellington was at 20 to 1 in 1856, Blink Bonny at the same odds in 1857. Then Caractacus started at 40 to 1 in 1862, Hermit at 1,000 to 15 in 1867, Doncaster at 45 to 1 in 1873, Sir Bevis at 20 to 1 in 1879, Sir Hugo at 40 to 1 in 1892 and Jeddah at 100 to 1 in 1898.

The fascination of horse breeding, and especially of thoroughbreds, has always found so many votaries that it is small wonder that ladies have yielded to its seductive influences. Mrs. John M. Clay has a number of brood mares—the most of them descended from stock owned by Henry Clay. Mrs. Eugene Leigh has bred and sold quite a number in recent years, and with a single exception, every one has earned winning brackets. Perhaps the best of the lot is M. F. Dwyer's good colt Kingdon, by Kingston—Lady Ballard, winner of the Bouquet and Expectation Stakes.—Spirit of the Times.

Winner—Blk. c, 4, by Tom Paxton—Lillie V. Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Gold Band stopped in front. Her best races thus far have been in the mud. Colonel Gay was too long a price. He is a useful horse. Found's recent hard races have not helped her. Don Orsino ran a good race. The race should help him. His head stall slipped, and it prevented Woods from doing him justice.

Winner—Ch. g, 3, by Pirate of Penance—Mary Winnifred.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; the next four driving and staggering. It was a bad lot with Hosi the best. He ran a real game race and had to, to win. In the sprint for the path at the head of the stretch Weird outran Hosi and sharply cut him off. Martin was obliged to pull up and finished in the worst going. It was a game performance. Weird seemed to be winning well into the stretch, but went all to pieces in the last seventy yards. Sir Hobart and Peg Parks struck a piece of good going on the far turn and raced from last places almost to the front. GNOME, as usual, fluttered in front for a while. She seems to be of no account whatever.
Scratched—Nellie Baker, 113; F Garner, 115; Dagmar, 107.

Winner—Ch. g, by Blitzen—Sue B.
Post 4 minutes. Start good for all but Pirate Judge. It was a driving finish. Martin out- rode Burns a trifle. Pirate Judge was the best horse. Burns was slow in getting him away and did not start to work on him soon enough in the stretch. Martin went to his whip long before Burns and rode a powerful finish. The same ride would have won on Pirate Judge. Mulvihill got the path in the stretch and finished strong. Campbell threw away third place on Elsie G at the stretch turn. Instead of coming to the outside where the going was best he brought the filly to the center of the track and anchored her. Fayette is a good looker and may have some quality. He was short to-day.
Scratched—Martha Fox, 105; Josephine B, 107.

Winner—B. f, by Longstreet—Bonetta.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased a trifle on the end. Bonito was the best. She was on the outside in the path all the way. The filly is game and stood a drive the last quarter. After straightening away Borden faltered a trifle and bumped into Bonito. Caywood straightened him, though, in a hurry, and the interference did no damage. Borden has been underestimated. He is a fair sort of a selling plater, and has a liking for the mud. Locust Blossom did well as far as she went. Bonito and Bow and Arrow collided at the start and both almost fell.
Scratched—Globe II, 107.

Winner—B. h, 6, by Falsetto—Sunglean.
Off at first break to a good start. Won driving; second and third driving also. Sunburst was nicely ridden. Bloss waited long and patiently with him. He made his run on the stretch turn and beat Joe Clark to the path. It was a tight pinch and Sunburst almost shut Joe Clark off. The latter was the best horse in the race. He was much used racing down the back stretch with Albert S. Hill had the best of the going, though, and it was policy to keep to the front as long as he could. Smith pumped Albert S. out early and he stopped almost to a walk in the stretch. The track was to Pete Kitchen's liking and he ran a fair race. All four were very tired at the finish.
Scratched—Cherry Leaf, 102.

Winner—B. c, by Free Knight—Lillian.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth driving hard. Mizzoura was in a soft spot. He was off none too well but outclassed his field. Rutter was lucky in finding the good going on the far turn. He did not try for the path at the head of the stretch but came right down in the middle of the track. The Dragon seems to like the heavy going and improves with every race. Cousin Lettie was pumped out the first eighth. Ed Tipton could not extend himself in the deep going and ran a bad race. Mazie O. is a consistent filly.
Scratched—Steamer, 110; Guess Me, 107.
Overweights—Mizzoura, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. h, 5, by Fonso—Goldie Cad.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily after an early drive; second eased up at the end. Ramiro II was much the best. He had class always and showed it in his race entering the stretch. Sangamon seemed to be winning when Martin called on Ramiro. He responded gamely and beat Sangamon as good horses beat ones of less quality. The latter raced on the extreme outside all the way. In the first sixteenth Depending showed a sharp turn of speed and between the starting and half mile posts, was at one time five lengths to the good. The others raced over him, though, as if he were tied. Fonclif was a very easy third.
Scratched—King Bermuda, 107; Pinar del Rio, 105.

Winner—B. f. by Escher—Morning Glory.
Start straggling. Won easily. Theory was lame before the race. Was lucky and perfectly handled and easily the best but did not beat much. Tendresse and Claire are both cowards. They have speed, but little class. Halo is a fine lucker. He closed a big gap after getting away badly. Watch him. Gaze ran well. Keep track of him in mud. Synia is an extra good looker, but far from ready. Ran a fair race. Water Girl got an easy ride. Amorita was practically left, is a bad actor. Can be kept in view in the hands of a good jockey.
Scratched—Gold Mine, 110.
Overweights—Theory, 1 pound.

6390 SECOND RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—Blk. f. 4, by Wagner—Fondling.
Start fair. Won driving. Imp was stopping at the end. She ran impressively, beat a fair field, yet was lucky throughout. Havoc's weight anchored him in the last quarter. He might have been better handled first part. Knight ran a greatly improved race. Dr. Catlett had no speed at any stage of the race. He is a bad horse just now. His past record makes him a late season horse. Howard S. ran a good race with a small boy up. He needs strong handling.
Scratched—Damien, 115; Ben Ronald, 115; Handball, 105.

6391 THIRD RACE—5-8 Mile. $600 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances

5497	CHANLER	109	6	6	6	6	6	Doggett	P J Dwyer	20	50	20	50

Winner—Ch. c. by Conveth—Formosa.
Start good. Won easily. Formero outclassed his field and is nearly a first-class colt. Rusher requires a strong jockey and to be restrained. He has a fine burst of speed and is improving. Cormorant got a bad ride. He tried to bolt on the turn, but closed strongly when straightened out. Is most promising. Handcuff showed a nice burst of speed and was probably short. Chopin ran an improved race but belongs among youngsters of less class.
Scratched—Compensation, 107; Amorita, 104.
Overweights—Chanler, 2 pounds.

6392 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

6253	BELMAR	107	1	4	4	4	4	4	Hewitt	G E Smith	8	10	6

Winner—Ch. h. 7, by Harry O'Fallon—Lady Royster.
Start good. Won driving. Lehman was badly handled, pocketed several times, shut off in the stretch, and was easily the best. Prince ran a fine, game race, and is good. Semper Ego was conceding too much weight to his horses. He was a good horse today; was galloping first part and seemed a sure winner in the stretch. He finished game and strong and is at his best. Belmar ran a somewhat improved race. Watch him from now on. Every race should help him.
Scratched—Ben Ronald, 109; Sly Fox, 106; Sanders, 106; Leedsville, 101.
Overweights—Lehman, 1 pound.

*Disqualified for foul.
Winner—B. c. by Falsetto—Cachuca.
Start straggling. Won handily. Whistling Con was easily the best. He got weak handling, swerved toward the rail in the last quarter and was nearly stopped to a walk in being pulled away from Boyd. The latter showed a great burst of speed on the stretch turn and finished strong and game. Watch him in mud. He is steadily improving. Tabouret ran a fine race and should improve her for long races. Mont D'Or, off badly, ran to the extreme outside on the first turn and appeared to sulk on the stretch turn. Throw out his race. Watch him in the mud. Handball appeared to be galloping the first three-quarters, stopped in the stretch and was pulled up. He could have been fourth. Slasher belongs among lower class colts. Antwerp showed some speed. Watch him. Spinner was galloping the first half, but stopped badly.
Scratched—Filament, 105; Rappahannock, 105.
Overweights—George Boyd, 1 pound; Sir Gawain, 1.

*First series.
Winner—B. c. 3, by Candlemas—Nellie Swift.
Start fair. Won handily. Swiftmas was lucky and well handled. He was probably the best, and has been working remarkably fast. Ruskin got a bad ride. He might have won with a good jockey; ran a smart race. Irish Reel appeared to be galloping the first part, and ran around her field. She closed strong, but is uncertain at her best. Tremargo is speedy. Watch him. He had no chance with to-day's ride. Handpress finished strong. Tab him, especially for mud. He is improving. Nick had no chance with his ride. Billali can be watched among cheaper ones. His forte is speed in the mud. Mainstay was repeatedly shut off, and eased up. Rotterdam requires a strong jockey always. He had no chance under young Lamley.
Scratched—Gotham, 116; Domitor, 109; Leedsville, 109; Taranto, 109; Continental, 104; Campana, 99.
